Chapter 1 by NotMonaLisa

I stared at man. He was seated in front of the console, his back turned from me. The rest of the nuclear base was abandoned.

"Hello!" I said, shivering. He didn't respond. "Hello?" I said again, walking up to him. "Is something wrong?"

At that moment I noticed the knife sticking out of his chest, and the timer on the console rapidly counting down from 75 minutes.

I was frozen in fear and shock. This was the console that activated the R-Bomb - the weapon that could blow up the world.

Chapter 2 by Forge.

Between seeing the timer ticking down, and a man in front of me with a knife sticking out of his chest, it literally took my breath away.

"Breath," I told myself. "That guy can't hurt you and isn't going anywhere, and there is still over world, I am saving you. You owe me. Big time." This brought a smile as I brought my hand to the button.

I pushed the button and the screen lit with a prompt: Enter Password.

The timer continued. I needed time to think. Wanting to do something, anything, I turned to the man and pulled the bloody knife from his chest. It was then I heard footsteps behind me. Someone was entering the room.
